Playful creativity can be a hallmark of the next three weeks, but only if you are willing to let it take its course wherever it leads. Don't expect to follow a straight track but go where things lead you until you start to establish a pattern. Only then can you get back to the main highway after an enlightening detour onto the scenic route. Don't be surprised if this muddies previously held opinions towards the end, as the new alternatives you will be finding will more than make up for any inconveniences or confusions experienced along the way.

Mercury turning around on your Moon may give you the message that you may have been missing something emotionally, perhaps not fully accessing your feelings when personal matters come into play. It could be time to take a second look at knee-jerk reactions and the types of automatic responses that operate under the radar but should perhaps be monitored more carefully. Make a renewed effort to make each moment fresh and live for itself and not just skip over to what you expect to come next. Your life is only as real as each individual feeling you experience, so let there be no forgotten ones.

A period of changeability and shifting focus has turned the corner and you will increasingly know better which choices are viable and which not. Provisional projects will turn into final directions, distractions will be identified and pushed aside. Wherever you do wind up going, don't simply forget the road not taken, the path decided against. Keep them in your memory bank as they may turn up in other guises later and you'll already be halfway there. Follow through on what looks like a winner now, but don't let seemingly wasted time be forever lost by throwing away its fruits. Act selectively, but retain all.

- 02 Feb 2003 12:33 pm 18° \vee 10' ♃ ♂ ☾

Mercury kicking off its return to action on your Moon tweaks your sensitivities to the confusions and delays of the last few weeks and enables you to make snap decisions to regain headway and get things back to normal. If it feels right, it probably is right, and you'll even likely be able to find exactly the right words for it. Tune up your antenna for communications arriving that impact your emotional state and clear up mixed messages you might have been relying on. Keep it light and breezy if you can, as others may be depending on your cheerful attitude to infuse them with the same.

Sometimes painting life with a broad brush can cause you to miss messy details that then slow you down. The next three weeks is a great time to pause and make sure the rugrats and anklebiters are not in a position to sidetrack your whole operation because you ignored them. It's time to give the small things their due so they can serve your larger purpose. By doing so, you may discover a better version of your own vision as well. Don't hurry, you've got time, and you may find that in the end tapping resources you had ignored will trigger a rising tide that floats all boats, not just your own.

After a few weeks of uncertainty about the big picture, your panorama on life returns somewhat amended. False starts have led to a focus on correcting details that have distracted from the overall plan, but these are being put behind you so you can return to your former path with a steadier hand on the helm. What you are putting together now will shortly have a direct effect on what people will be saying about you and upon your career plans, so don't toss off your ideas lightly. You will have the opportunity to impact your surroundings more than you think if you choose to, but you must make the choice.

realignment is now underway that will allow you to get back in tune with things. You will find yourself better able to take charge of your daily routine and let it energize you rather than drag you down. Experimentation with various alternatives now leads to the choice of a single path that both conserves your inner resources and brings you dividends in the process. Put aside time-wasting diversions and go with what - and who - really make you feel alive and glowing.

As Mars relaunches right over your natal Venus, don't be too shocked if the chance to get and do what you've been wanting suddenly drops at your feet. This is where desire and opportunity meet, so it could be just where you can take the ball and run with it. The trick is to field the prospect with aplomb so it seems like you were expecting it all along. Delays caused by recovering your bearings could greatly diminish what's being handed to you, so keep an open stance and be ready for the best to happen. Seize the day, capture the flag, and don't fumble the ball...

This begins a three-week period during which you have the opportunity to refine and perhaps repurpose the way you project yourself in your surroundings. Round off the raw edges and pull in any potential entanglements that might be slowing you down. You have not only the right, but sometimes the obligation, to change your mind in order to insure consistency and personal impact. Towards the end this may particularly include tightening up solutions to previously resolved issues to be sure they are well in hand. When you've got all your ducks in a row, you won't have to look back.

Just when you thought you were home-free, someone called time out and now you have to rework your game plan, refocus your approach. Mercury backpedalling on your Ascendant means you will have to touch up your personal presentation and make sure you are leading with the best - and the most truthful - game plan. What may seem like reversal is only delay, and you'll be glad in the end that it happened, giving you time to clear previously overlooked stones from your pathway. Once past selective makeover, you will find your image successfully bears scrutiny at every level.

After three weeks of readjustment you can start getting plans back into shape for going ahead, which includes some new feathers put on your personal image. You may find you have discovered some improved ways of fitting in your own leadership into the mix which will firm up during the next few weeks and everyday rhythms get renormalized. Although it might not have seemed so a couple of weeks ago, you're increasingly glad to have had the opportunity to edit your life a bit so you can better exploit your position both socially and financially during the next month or so. Some changes will have been momentary, but some will last.

26 Sep 2003 06:25 am 15°♍06' ♃♂ Asc

Mercury making its turnaround on your Ascendant can give you the opportunity to be the person with the first word in, the solution-maker, if you let it happen. Don't be afraid to chime in with new ideas, even if there has been a lot of confusion of late, because now is the time when resolutions finally become available and forward motion can begin again. People will tend to look to you to be the instigator, so don't disappoint them, let your ideas out of the box where they can do some good. You may not get everything you want, but you'll be first out of the gate, and the beginning is half of everything.

The next three weeks may cause you to step back and rethink your course and reset your bearings to make sure you are really on the course you intended. Do not hesitate to question fundamental values in order to get to the heart of what you believe and resolve inner conflicts that may arise. Small insights can net you large gains, particularly in the future stability of your ship. Rock your own boat before others do, and you'll be the better off for it. By the end, you may find risk reevaluation highly useful, particularly where you depend on others to evolve into what you will lean on in the future.

06 Jan 2004 08:41 am 26° 7' 16" Stationary Direct

A period of some delays, detours, and slowdowns has turned the corner and with a little more fine-tuning life operations will be not only back to normal but improved. Issues having to do with direction and creative focus begin to resolve themselves and turn out to have been only temporary delays, not fundamental problems. Once you have buttoned down the last of recently arisen distractions, you can put your mind fully on the game and get back to being the you you always thought you were, only better. The exercise provided by internal troubleshooting and introspection brings you back stronger than ever.
