Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Miles Davis Your Life Progressions for Apr 1, 2006

Leo on the First Cusp

You possess a personal magnetic appeal that draws admiration from others. You have self-assurance, coupled with a dramatic flair that desires to be the center of attention. You may speak more loudly than you have in the past. You want very much for others to hear your opinions and may, at times, be too aggressive in the attempt. Upgrading your appearance is important, as you seek the latest styles and better quality. You want to project an air of authority, and you long for personal independence in your career. If you do not have your own business, you would prefer the role of leadership in a supervisory position. This is the time to undertake new studies that can aid you in the career of your choice. Romance and investments are highlighted -- as are the affairs of children (not necessarily your own). Someone within your immediate environment may experience problems with their eyes, back, or heart. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Sun, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Sun in Leo

Your progressed Sun has entered into the positive and outgoing sign of Leo. There is a dramatic flair that colors your mode of expression. You are becoming more ambitious, independent, and magnanimous. This tends to draw the admiration from others that you now crave. You may find that past restrictions or family responsibilities are lessening, providing you with more time to pursue personal goals, seek public recognition, and perhaps obtain a position of management or control over others. You are taking more pains with your appearance and style of dress. There is a deep sense of pride in personal accomplishments and a desire to bring them to the attention of others. There is a compelling air of self-confidence, a commanding nature and dignity that projects you as a person of authority. Through sheer will-power and persistency, you will be able to attain the success you so desire. Children, education, creativity, romance, and investments are highlighted. The men that enter your life at this time will be younger or act younger than their years. They will have an upright carriage, a regal bearing, dress well, and have preference for quality.

Sun in the First House

Strive to develop a better personality and strengthen your self-confidence in order to open the door to greater attainments with excellent results. Independence and leadership qualities are pronounced. Arriving at decisions and conclusions of personal plans on your own will prove more beneficial than accepting the counsel of others. It may be difficult for you to accept a position of lesser status than you desire, for your sense of pride in personal attainments is very strong at this time. The affairs, actions, or interests of male relationships will play an important role in circumstances surrounding your personal or family affairs.

Sun Square Saturn (Prg-Prg) Mar 10, 2006

This a difficult and trying three-year trend in which the vitality and energy level are lower than usual. You will have to safeguard your health by taking necessary precautions. Get flu shots, if possible, and protect yourself against colds which are likely to linger on. You will have to maintain a positive outlook on life to avoid bouts of mental depression that may occur from time to time. If you feel a lack of interest in social affairs, then use that extra time wisely. Decide what it is that you always wanted to accomplish but never had the time. Then organize your life in a constructive manner around this project and work diligently until it's completed. You will triumphantly emerge from this difficult influence, with a profound project that would not have been possible before. Be realistic in your goals, and accept the fact that progress in personal and business affairs will be confronted by hindrances and delays. There may be a possible loss of friends or someone in the domestic circle.

Sun Trine Venus (Prg-Nat) Jan 26, 2007

All directions point to social and financial increase. Take advantage of all opportunities that promise advancements and improvement of present conditions. New friends, business, or romantic contacts are likely. Your well-developed feelings and emotions should help to solidify these relationships. There is the possibility of family increase by marriages or births. A beneficial and fortunate period for general happiness and prosperity. An excellent time for investments, monetary increase, and partnership matters.

Neptune in the First House

Others are beginning to view you as being somewhat moody and temperamental when actually you may be taking a stand against the tiresome routine of being gullible and manipulated. You will consciously or unconsciously take on the conditions of your surroundings and of those with whom you come in contact. With this in mind, be very selective of friends and of those in your immediate environment. Maintain an atmosphere of peace and serenity through light-colored walls and furniture. You may have the ability to develop the art of visualization -- to view in your mind's eye the problem that confronts you at the moment -- and the capacity to reach a solution quickly and accurately. When discordant situations arise, leaving you feeling emotionally drained and upset, seek escape through long walks in the woods, fishing, boating, swimming, or music, or just return to bed for a few more hours of harmless daydreaming. Avoid the temptation for release through alcohol or drug abuse. Your life may be influenced by psychics, mediums, musicians, physicians, and those who are mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped, or have a dependency upon medication, drugs, or alcohol.

Virgo on the Second Cusp

Constructive developments, either through work or business, can enhance your financial structure. Although formerly you may have detested routine work, you will probably find yourself in a position where proper attention to details will be required. Your daily routine may involve keeping records of travel expenses or of special equipment purchased in your line of work. You may be spending more than you have in the past for health care or products -- not necessarily for yourself, but possibly for your marriage partner or a domestic pet.

Virgo on the Third Cusp

You are becoming more precise in your speech, the detailed handling of paperwork, and the formation of ideas. You are practical and discriminative; yet at times you can be overly critical and faultfinding of others. There is the tendency to worry over insignificant matters which may expand your health problems out of proportion. At some point during this trend, you may have to do a lot of short travels or communicating in connection with your job or the obtaining of health or sick benefits. Your neighbor or sibling may have activities with police. Or, you may call the police on your neighbor due to barking dogs or stray cats. Your thoughts will be centered around the care and improvement of your health -- perhaps reading books on proper dietary habits and vitamins.

Moon in Libra

Accept social invitations that may open the door to new relationships, possibly leading to marriage or business partnerships. There is a strong desire for love and affection -- and in some cases -- a dependency on the partner. Be selective, however, in your choice of companions. While some may be beneficial to your well being, others may prove detrimental by drawing you into an undesirable situation where the other party may be married or undergoing a difficult divorce. If you are already married, this placement will affect your present relationship either by enhancing and strengthening or by causing a wedge and possible separation. For those happily married, it is best not to tempt fate by promoting close ties with the opposite sex. Dealings with an attorney, physician, or counselor are possible during this trend. Drink plenty of fluids to maintain balance within the system and avoid the possibility of kidney problems. Other vulnerable areas of health can involve the veins or ovaries. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to provide additional insight in connection with marriage or business partnerships.

Moon in the Third House

This is one of the busiest trends of your life. Activities are centered around frequent short trips, phone calls, and letter-writing. Direct your restless mind into new channels. Golfing, model-making, knitting, or study courses will aid in keeping from fretting about insignificant worries. An emotional bond may be formed between yourself and a sibling or neighbor. Do not permit your mind to dwell on past slights or what you feel was a personal affront or criticism. The sign position of your progressed Moon may disclose positive outlets for mental expressions and studies.

Moon Semisquare Neptune (Prg-Prg) Jan 26, 2006

You may be quite vulnerable and gullible during this trend. You may be an easy prey for those who wish to take advantage of you. Be on guard against possible deception and fraud when forming new friendships and close attachments. Avoid situations with the opposite sex that hint of secrecy or hidden intrigue. Don't fall for easy, money-making, get-rich-quick schemes.

Moon Sextile Mercury (Prg-Prg) Mar 3, 2006

A very fortunate and successful trend under which to study and learn new subjects. Concentrate on improving your mentality in all directions. Favorable for expansion of business and negotiation of contracts. Write books, handle neglected correspondence, and travel. Plan pleasurable outings with brothers and sisters and other close relatives. You have good, sound judgment at this time, and should be successful in reaching satisfactory decisions concerning future gains and expansion.

Moon Sextile Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Mar 19, 2006

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Mar 30, 2006

There is an inclination to spend more than you can afford, with the possibility of overextending yourself financially through extravagance. Although your intentions were good, you may discover that you have promised more than you can actually deliver. Irritability may be present in your make-up. During this trend it may be best to avoid too much contact with close associations and family ties. Watch your health, and don't overindulge or overexercise.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Nat) May 25, 2006

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Jul 6, 2006

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Prg) Jul 23, 2006

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Nat) Aug 5, 2006

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and overactivity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Sun (Prg-Nat) Oct 31, 2006

Physical stamina, vitality, and your general state of health may not be up to par. During the next few months all relationships are best kept at arm's length to avoid possible disputes or confrontations. This is not the time to push ahead in business or personal endeavors. Obstacles and drawbacks are likely to hinder or impair potential opportunities.

Moon Sextile Sun (Prg-Prg) Jan 1, 2007

You are in a positive state of mind, filled with optimism and a hopeful outlook. Your inspirational attitude is likely to draw admiration from others and increase your chances for social contacts, business advancement, or a new romance. Take advantage of all opportunities and channel them into constructive possibilities. You are on a roll, and should make the most of these three opportune months.

Moon Opposition Venus (Prg-Nat) Jan 3, 2007

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Nat) Jan 31, 2007

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Moon Sextile Neptune (Prg-Nat) Feb 18, 2007

You may have accurate psychic impressions during this trend, which can pay off if you listen to them. Strange and prophetic dreams may try to relate a message while you are sleeping or meditating. It may be possible to develop the art of visualization -- seeing in your mind's eye what you hope to achieve in life, and then feeding the subconscious mind the picture as though you already achieved it. Unforeseen rewards may come your way, for favors you have generously given in the past.

Moon Trine Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Feb 28, 2007

One of the most opportune periods for financial, business, and social affairs. Use a positive and constructive approach with this trend, commencing all new undertakings that promise good fortune and opportunities. Do all you can to improve personal conditions. This can be a milestone in which goals and objectives take new and favorable directions. This is a good time to speculate, invest, and make beneficial contacts or ties. Consider new educational pursuits or make travel plans.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Mar 1, 2007

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Sextile Neptune (Prg-Prg) Apr 27, 2007

You may have accurate psychic impressions during this trend, which can pay off if you listen to them. Strange and prophetic dreams may try to relate a message while you are sleeping or meditating. It may be possible to develop the art of visualization -- seeing in your mind's eye what you hope to achieve in life, and then feeding the subconscious mind the picture as though you already achieved it. Unforeseen rewards may come your way, for favors you have generously given in the past.

Moon Square Venus (Prg-Prg) May 31, 2007

During the next three months, more than any other time, you are likely to be misunderstood and easily hurt. You may be too sensitive, permitting personal feelings to dominate over reason. Matters concerned with close ties, romance, or associations may not be going as well as you would like. This is not the time to push for an ultimatum; it more than likely will end in a disagreement or separation. This is not the best time for dealing with the opposite sex, or with social or domestic affairs. Temporary financial setbacks may also pose a problem.

Moon Trine Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jun 27, 2007

One of the most opportune periods for financial, business, and social affairs. Use a positive and constructive approach with this trend, commencing all new undertakings that promise good fortune and opportunities. Do all you can to improve personal conditions.

This can be a milestone in which goals and objectives take new and favorable directions. This is a good time to speculate, invest, and make beneficial contacts or ties. Consider new educational pursuits or make travel plans.

Moon Quincunx Uranus (Prg-Nat) Sep 7, 2007

Take a firm stand toward anyone who may try to push you into doing something unconventional, out of the ordinary, or who may try to force you into making unwise changes. You are likely to come in contact with another individual who will have a peculiar effect on you -- someone who may cause you to do impulsive or indiscreet activities that you would not normally do. This can be a beneficial time for making positive changes, but be careful not to eliminate the old until you've had a chance to establish the new.

Moon Quincunx Uranus (Prg-Prg) Sep 8, 2007

Take a firm stand toward anyone who may try to push you into doing something unconventional, out of the ordinary, or who may try to force you into making unwise changes. You are likely to come in contact with another individual who will have a peculiar effect on you -- someone who may cause you to do impulsive or indiscreet activities that you would not normally do. This can be a beneficial time for making positive changes, but be careful not to eliminate the old until you've had a chance to establish the new.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Nat) Oct 31, 2007

Impulsive decisions or hasty actions can lead to possible accidents or quarrels with loved ones. Abrupt statements made at this time are likely to be cause for regret later. Don't push for important changes or take unnecessary risks. Work out this excessive energy through repairing, painting, or completion of difficult tasks. Be aware that certain risks are involved. Use caution in new undertakings or ventures.

Moon Opposition Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Dec 30, 2007

There is an emotional pull between family responsibilities and career interests. You may have to find a way in which to blend the two areas together. Changes are likely to affect your immediate environment, through the possibility of moving or enlargement of your present home. Purchase or sale of property may also be given consideration.

Scorpio on the Fourth Cusp

There appears to be a lot of tension, emotional upheaval, and turbulent events surrounding your home life. This may account for your desire to be a loner, remain aloof, and keep your private life to yourself. Changes are likely to occur regarding property and finances. Severe weather conditions may have damaged your home, requiring insurance settlements and a rebuilding of the unit. Or, job and marriage difficulties may call for a second mortgage. In some cases there is loss of a family member, usually a grandparent. Whatever the situation may be, you have the extraordinary will-power to handle it. This sign is associated with surgery on the sexual parts in connection with one of the parents.

Saturn in the Fourth House

You are becoming extremely security-minded with a strong desire for an organized life. You want to own property away from the close scrutiny of neighbors, surrounded by woods and land. You have the ability to save and accumulate money or possessions as you become more prudent in financial matters. A deep sense of responsibility appears to surround your home base. Perhaps your present environment is creating more work and upkeep than you first anticipated. Your mortgage payments may be burdensome. Or a parent may come to share your home, restricting your personal freedom and social life. Benefits are possible through a parent or other members of the family.

Sagittarius on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible to play the role of instructor during this trend. You are quite versatile in your hobbies and talents. Why not contact your local adult education center and see what you can offer? You are less intense in your romantic attachments, seeking partners that are more outgoing, sports minded, and of the same intellectual caliber. Children are thinking about a college education. Others may move to distant cities, which may activate future travels on your part. At some point during this trend, you may have to assist a child in resolving a legal issue. Your second sibling may temporarily relocate. If interested in investments, look to foreign products, exports, airlines, and sporting goods.

Capricorn on the Sixth Cusp

You are developing strong traits in organizing ability, efficiency, and acceptance of responsibility. You work well alone, and at some time during this trend, you may have to work the evening or night shift. There is a strong possibility you may work for the government, or there may be a governmental contract at your place of employment that requires you to wear an identification badge during this trend. If you are on salary, there is the tendency for supervisors to burden you with more than your share of work. Your only alternative is to demand extra monetary compensation. Make it a point to have lots of hot beverages and plenty of soup during winter months to keep the body temperature warm.

Aquarius on the Seventh Cusp

Friends, clubs, and associations will be instrumental in providing you with an active social life. You are seeking a marriage or business partner who can act independently and decisively -- but not erratically, for you are a fixed sign and like a certain amount of routine in your everyday existence. Accept your partner's needs and desires for close friendships, whether you approve of them or not.

Jupiter in the Seventh House

Others are drawn to your attractive personality, grace, charm, and tactful manner. Social contacts can be very beneficial, providing a means of contacting influential and prominent people who can help promote future progress. There is a willingness to cooperate with close ties, associates, and business partnerships. This placement can enhance the opportunity for marriage -- if not for yourself, then for those within the immediate family. Any form of travel is likely to be in the company of another person or because of their influence. People of all colors, races, religions, and walks of life will touch upon your personal affairs during this trend. Many long distance phone calls, letters, and trips will revolve around a close relationship.

Pisces on the Eighth Cusp

You have a vivid imagination when it comes to sexual fantasy. The ideal romantic atmosphere would include a mixed drink or two, a sheer nighty, dim lights, soft music, and the pitter-patter of rain drops on the window pane. You are also quite sensitive and easily hurt if someone should criticize your sexual proclivities. Always make it a point to save your receipts and records with major purchases. It will help you avoid a constant flow of confusion through billing systems and computers that keep insisting you owe them money. Be alert to possible deception through partnership funds or investment schemes. During this trend it is possible that institutional or private care of someone who is emotionally, mentally, or physically ill may be financially draining.

Pisces on the Ninth Cusp

Concentrate on driving and proper reading of the map, if traveling by car. Confusion and fog can create hazardous conditions. Be selective of what you eat and drink in various cities or countries. You may be sensitive to the chemicals in the water or spices in the food. Art, music, photography, psychology, chemistry, or investigative work would be good topics, if you are furthering your studies. Avoid legal entanglements during this trend, if possible. You'll find that matters are not as they appear on the surface -- either the situation is confused, the papers get lost, or there are deceptive influences at work.

Uranus in the Ninth House

Your thoughts and ideas will operate through unique channels of expression, which may be considered unconventional or "way-out" by others. Furthering your education along new lines of endeavor will intrigue you. Courses dealing with astrology, computers, audio/video equipment, and other technical or scientific fields may be given serious consideration. Travel is likely to include groups of people (as with a guided tour) or involve large gatherings (such as conventions, seminars, or public lecturers). Keep a small suitcase packed with important necessities for those quick and abrupt departures. An element of the unexpected surrounds phone messages, letters from distant places, and the affairs of in-laws.

Taurus on the Tenth Cusp

Your goal in life at this time is to advance financially in your chosen profession. You would like nothing better than to make a lucky coup in some business venture. Financial situations require careful watching. Overextension of monetary affairs can lead to damaged credit ratings, consolidating of bills, or obtaining a second mortgage. A parent may be a good source for financial assistance.

Mars in Taurus

The challenging ventures or business enterprises entered into while Mars was in Aries should prove gainful at this time, as Mars now progresses into the money sign of Taurus. This position can introduce new opportunities for channeling financial matters through conservative and practical outlets. You will be more persistent in your efforts and actions, even when a course of action hits a snag. Your indomitable courage will aid you in attacking these problems with more patience than in the past. Guard against obstinate views that can hinder financial progress. Influential men are likely to touch upon your life at this time. Some will be a source of monetary gain or drain.

Mars in the Tenth House

You are quite ambitious and independent, with boundless energy. You "chafe at the bit" when bosses try to restrict your freedom of movement, speech, or actions. For this reason, your career interests may be shifting, seeking new and challenging career opportunities that offer more flexibility in self-expression and personal decisions. In all likelihood you will be entering into a vocation that you have not encountered before. Working with mechanical objects, machinery, or tools may become part of your trade. There is the tendency to "overreact" toward rules, regulations, or demands made by your supervisor. Arguments, rifts, or misunderstandings can occur if you do not learn to control your actions. Men will play an important role in your vocational career, either assisting or hindering it.

Gemini on the Eleventh Cusp

You will make new friends who are witty, active, and intellectual. Clubs, organizations, and group activities involving manual dexterity and quickness of motion (such as golfing, racquetball, volleyball, or karate) will hold strong interest. There is the possibility of a secretarial position or keeping records for an organization. Your present hopes and wishes appear to be based on educational advancements.

Cancer on the Twelfth Cusp

You are super sensitive about criticism and rejection from others. You won't wear your heart on your sleeve. No one will ever know the emotional hurt you experience, because it is so deeply imbedded and hidden. You have strong maternal and protective instincts for the handicapped and the downtrodden. Environmental conditions can affect your emotional state. You require an atmosphere of tranquility and harmony before you can function well.

Mercury in Leo

Mercury governs the intellect. As it progresses into the sign of Leo, you will become more direct, confident, and positive in your thinking. Your organizing ability is enhanced, and you will have a greater scope for handling responsibilities. At times you will still be controlled by your emotions, especially when you are deeply hurt or rejected. But, your present affirmative attitude will not permit you to dwell too long on past hurts. There will be a noticeable dramatic flair and colorful expression to your manner of speaking. If you are not presently a teacher, you may be drawn into this new and exciting role, either assisting others to learn specific information or teaching them new techniques in their line of work. Children (your own or those of siblings or close ties) may play an important role in your life. Mental application may be directed toward the study of investment programs or new creative hobbies.

Mercury Retrograde

Mercury is the planet of mental application. It has changed direction since its placement at birth and is now retrograde in motion. Certain prevailing conditions in your life may alter your present state of mind. You may feel compelled to change your mental attitude. Thought and action may be re-routed into new avenues of expression. You may (or perhaps already have) give serious consideration to immediate changes within the environment. Affairs regarding brothers and sisters may require your personal attention.

Mercury in the Twelfth House

You have pronounced psychic or intuitive ability. You are receptive to the thoughts of others, with the capacity to read their mind. You can tell instinctively when someone is holding something back or trying to deceive you. With proper training, you can develop the art of visualization (being able to foresee in your mind's eye the problem that confronts you at the moment, viewing the solution, and then resolving it). You are quite secretive, so it may be rather difficult to share your thoughts with others. This is a good time to undergo deep research if your job requires it. You may have to find a secret hiding place to be truly productive -- somewhere free from interference that tends to disrupt your train of thought. Always be discreet about what you say or write on paper, to avoid any possibility of it being used against you. This placement is associated with sorrows, hospitalization, or an illness connected with a brother or sister.

Venus in Cancer

As your progressed Venus enters into the sign of Cancer, it opens the door to exceptionally emotional and sensitive feelings. Attachments mean everything to you as your previous lighthearted attitude begins to wane. You are tired of flirtatious affairs. You are seeking a deeper commitment, a more steadfast relationship, no matter what the age gap. A deep sense of security may urge you to invest in property or beautify your present home to enhance its value. Sentimentality with family ties and parental devotion is strengthened. Older or mature women will be a source of financial or material gain or loss.

Venus in the Twelfth House

You have great receptivity for art, music, and beautiful surroundings. Excessive noise, arguments, or upheaval in your environment is very upsetting to your sense of balance and well-being. You desire peace and harmony at all costs; if necessary you will seek seclusion to attain it. Your nature is refined, gracious, and well-mannered. You loathe coarse language, and will walk away from anyone who tries to use it in an argument. It may be difficult for you to outwardly express your affections, for you can be quite secretive concerning your emotions. Do not permit others to work on your sympathy and thereby talk you into lending them monetary or material goods. This is a sensitive placement that may one day introduce a female into your life who will be emotionally, mentally, or physically handicapped. She may teach you how to develop strength of character and compassion for others.

Pluto in the Twelfth House

There will be a strong desire to work in secrecy, do research, or study subjects of a mysterious nature. There is an inclination to delve into the supernatural and unusual phenomena. Mysticism, yoga, and mind control are just a few of the topics that may hold your interest. This is also a period that calls for intense internal readjustment. You may be required to rid yourself of old and useless items and ideas. A school, college, the armed forces, or an institution may be involved with your transformation. You will learn to suppress or overcome your fears, change or alter some physical aspect of your body or style of dress, and rid yourself of bad habits. Guard against gullibility where joint finances are concerned. This is not the time to co-sign for monetary concerns involving others. Whatever you loan out, materially or financially, is not likely to be repaid or returned.
