Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp.

This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Cancer on the First Cusp

Emotions and feelings will play a major role in your make-up. You may become more protective and sensitive to the needs of family members. Criticism from others, no matter how constructive, will not be taken lightly. A major change has taken place within your immediate environment -- or will soon. Moving, selling, redecorating, or enlarging of your present home is likely. Conditions prevail in which someone may move in or out -- perhaps a roommate, parent, or child. Others may feel smothered by parental influences and decide to leave the nest, seeking a place of their own. The affairs of a parent or parent-in-law has required or may soon require your attention. A strong desire for future security may lead to serious consideration of investment programs. Don't permit emotional outbursts to drive you to eat, thereby gaining weight unnecessarily. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Moon, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Saturn in the First House

A personality change may occur in anyone who, during the formative years, has progressed Saturn entering the progressed first house. Youth finds it difficult to handle the restrictive and delaying elements of this placement. As a result, one may rebel against what they feel are unnecessary hindrances and undue responsibilities. Some may become belligerent against those in authority whom they feel are bearing down too heavily on them. A serious state of mind or mental depression and a lack of self-confidence may be present. Constant encouragement and praise in their accomplishments (no matter how minor), coupled with lots of affection, can help to smooth these difficult times. Braces on the teeth, skin problems, or correction of the bony structure of the body often accompany this placement. Should Saturn progress to the first house during adult years, there is a readiness for assuming responsibilities. Organizing ability is enhanced. Others recognize your strength and endurance in handling difficult tasks. As a result, you may be placed in a supervisory position. The government, political parties, or individuals of rank and authority, a parent, or an older individual will have a long-range influence upon your life. Soup and hot beverages can do wonders in warding off chills and colds during the change of seasons.

Ascendant Sesquiquadrate Venus (Prg-Nat) Nov 15, 2008

Your emotions and feelings are ultra-sensitive at this time. This can create a problem when dealing with women, romantic attachments and business or marital partnerships. Guard against extravagance and unwise or risky ventures that can result in financial loss. Have your reproductive system checked, as well as any potential for blood clots, growths, and varicose veins.

Leo on the Second Cusp

Your organizing ability is good, and this will enable you to handle people and situations that are associated with your financial affairs. There is greater appreciation of quality. If you cannot purchase the best, you will strive for second best. Investments, gambling, romance, creative hobbies, and schools may influence personal income. Children (not necessarily your own) may be a source of financial drain or assistance. You will work best when you are placed in a position of authority.

Pluto in the Second House

Joint monetary resources will play a dominate role in your life during this trend. You will either give investments serious consideration, consolidate your bills, pay off a mortgage, apply for a loan, go bankrupt, or increase your insurance. If you are married, your spouse may go on social security, sick benefits, or an early retirement. There is the possibility of working in collaboration with others on a project that involves joint monetary arrangements. You may be placed in a position of writing payroll checks, handling insurance claims, making out wills, working in the medical field, or in any position where you have control over a department, people, or machinery. IRS auditing is possible, so keep good payroll records and precise income tax deductions.

Virgo on the Third Cusp

You are becoming more precise in your speech, the detailed handling of paperwork, and the formation of ideas. You are practical and discriminative; yet at times you can be overly critical and faultfinding of others. There is the tendency to worry over insignificant matters which may expand your health problems out of proportion. At some point during this trend, you may have to do a lot of short travels or communicating in connection with your job or the obtaining of health or sick benefits. Your neighbor or sibling may have activities with police. Or, you may call the police on your neighbor due to barking dogs or stray cats. Your thoughts will be centered around the care and improvement of your health -- perhaps reading books on proper dietary habits and vitamins.

Libra on the Fourth Cusp

One of your parents is going to do a lot of entertaining or play a prominent role before the general public during this trend. It appears that both you and your marriage partner may reside in your parent's home for a short time before obtaining a place of your own. At some point there may be the formulation of a partnership with a parent, perhaps in the purchase of a multiple dwelling. This sign is also associated with kidney problems and blood clots that may affect one of your parents.

Neptune in the Fourth House

Psychic ability is enhanced. An interest in music may encourage you to purchase a piano, organ, or another instrument for your home. Unusual conditions may surround various members of your family. A child may require corrective braces on their feet.

Your home may take on a hospital atmosphere when a parent or marriage partner develops an illness requiring constant care, nursing, or medication be administered. Look for your ideal home during a rainstorm to eliminate the possibility of a leaky roof or basement. Be on the alert for gas odors, or sewer and plumbing problems. Secret or mysterious situations may surround your home base or the affairs of a family member.

Scorpio on the Fifth Cusp

You are extremely sensual in romantic affairs. Guard against possessiveness and jealous tendencies. You need a hobby that will help to relax your inner tensions. Crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, and paint-by-number sets are good outlets. Your children are perplexed over your change of attitude. They find your domineering and dictatorial ways disturbing. You may find yourself in the role of money lender where children are concerned. Insurance or inheritance problems may result through your second sibling. Bars, beverage stores, surgical instruments, and tools are always a good potential for investments.

Venus in the Fifth House

Your popularity is on an upward trend as others find you exceedingly attractive, sociable, and friendly. You will become more aware of your appearance (dress and adornment). There is the desire to dress well and in good taste. Pleasurable pursuits, social gatherings, weddings, and shower invitations will be activated during this period. There is strength in your feelings of love and the power of attraction, which may open the door to new romantic relationships. Artistic and creative pursuits may also be enhanced. Conditions are highlighted in connection with young people, and quite possibly a female child.

Jupiter in the Fifth House

You are projecting an air of self-confidence and self-assurance that meets the approval of others, thereby increasing your popularity. There is the possibility of mingling and forming close associations with people of a higher social status than your own. This is an excellent placement for those who want to conceive children, teach, or take an active role in the educational process. Listen to your intuition. It can provide lucky hunches when dealing with investments, gambling, the race track, or football pools. Travel may be connected with schools, attending sporting events, fan clubs, gambling casinos, or visiting children who reside in distant cities. Opportunities for romantic involvements may activate social affairs. Your free-spirited attitude may require some control to prevent casual affairs from developing into serious situations. Lawsuits or legal entanglements may surround affairs dealing with children, night clubs, and places of entertainment or sports.

Sagittarius on the Sixth Cusp

You are getting restless and may consider looking for a new job that offers more money and a better position. It is possible you may return to college or higher education for additional training to increase your chances for promotional advancements. There is a chance for travel or relocation in connection with your job. Or, you may have to drive quite a few miles back and forth to your place of employment in another city. No matter what you lift at work, whether it is a typewriter or boxes, bend with the knees to avoid injury to the hips and sciatic nerves.

Sun in Capricorn

Your character is changing from the free-spirited Sagittarius sign to the persevering, practical, cautious, and secretive traits of the progressed Sun in Capricorn. You swing like a pendulum from positive to negative, sometimes yielding to various states of depression. There is a greater scope of opportunities to advance in professional or public affairs. Politics or government may influence your vocational duties. There may be a readiness to assume additional responsibilities or a supervisory position. This is a "hurry up and wait" sign, so don't expect immediate results or progress. This retarding influence holds greater promise and long-range benefits for those who persevere. A parent, a mature individual, or an authority figure will have a pronounced influence upon your career.

Sun in the Sixth House

You take great pride in methodical and organized handling of work-related details. To be a truly productive employee, you require praise and recognition of your efforts. You are terribly ambitious and will always strive to better yourself by being alert for new job openings and opportunities. One of your major objectives is to hold a position of authority where you are in a supervisory capacity over others. Your physical stamina may not be up to par. Frequent rest periods may help to alleviate these periodic bouts of lethargy. Pushing yourself beyond your capacity can open the door to possible health problems with the back, heart, or eyes. Male co-workers are more likely to be of help and assistance than females.

Sun Trine Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Jun 22, 2008

There is a strong desire to achieve recognition or advancement in life. Social affairs are activated and, in general, all personal affairs should be progressing well. This is a good time to seek favors from a parent or other figures of authority. Men can be helpful in your rise to a position of management. For women, marriage sometimes takes place during this trend. This influence instills good recuperative powers and should help to offset any health problems you may have had in the past.

Sun Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Jan 2, 2009

Unless other indications point differently this should be a smooth period in which all matters appear to be going well. One of the happiest times in one's life. New friends and attachments of a beneficial nature could be made. Social affairs are highlighted and possible recognition. Domestic, financial, or business affairs are progressing along favorable trends. New opportunities may increase chances for expansion and advancement...a period of general success and a positive frame of mind.

Sun Conjunction Mars (Prg-Prg) Feb 22, 2009

A high degree of excitable energy can be unleashed in the wrong direction, resulting in injury or possible accident. Safeguard your health and exercise control of this excess energy. Be aware that you may be more accident-prone than usual. There is the capacity to handle exceptionally difficult projects with amazing ease, and a willingness to take on new and different challenging ventures. Guard against being too aggressive or abrupt with those in your immediate environment.

Mercury in Capricorn

You are developing a serious approach to life and issues as your Mercury progresses into the sign of Capricorn. You appear to have a responsible and conscientious outlook that was not in evidence before. You still have the tendency to become bored and restless with routine situations; however, you are taking a different attitude concerning your professional career. You are becoming remarkably organized, more observant, and systematic -- planning ahead what is required of you, leaving nothing to chance as may have been your habit in the past. Those in authority will recognize your capacity for mental thoroughness and ability to work unsupervised. These laborious efforts are likely to have a positive effect on future advancements. Political figures, older individuals, a parent, or someone in authority will either aid or hinder progress.

Mercury in the Sixth House

Others will recognize and respect your expertise and patience in handling detailed tasks. No matter what kind of work you do, whether it is in a specialized skill or as a lecturer, instructor, or office clerk, you have the knack of coming across with uncanny clarity and understanding. Jobs that offer a variety of tasks are more apt to hold your attention, for you have the tendency to get bored easily. Your present vocation may require additional training or studies to insure future advancements. Avoid becoming too concerned with details and perfection, which can take its toll on your health. Your state of mind can affect your physical condition, so always maintain a positive attitude and avoid undue worry and stress.

Mars in Capricorn

As Mars progresses into Capricorn, you will find yourself becoming more organized and your self-reliance steadily improving. There is less scattering of forces and a more serious intent to promote yourself through quick grasping of opportunities. You are likely to weigh your actions and words more carefully than in the past. At this point in your life, it appears that you don't want to jeopardize a secure position or possible advancement to positions of authority. This is an excellent placement for those seeking a position with the city government (as with the police or fire department) or in politics. The men who touch upon your life at this time will probably be older or mature in actions, of a Capricorn coloring, executives, from the past, or on the city payroll.

Mars in the Sixth House

An abundance of energy and enthusiasm is always present with jobs that have a sense of challenge to them. You try to be fair and just with co-workers and those in your employ. Your abrupt and hasty energetic nature can create a short fuse that explodes from time to time in a burst of temper. Your anger soon subsides, leaving you with regret for your impulsive actions. You do well in vocations that require snap decisions, manual dexterity, or specialized skills. Mechanical know-how may be a necessity, or the ability to operate mechanized products such as electric typewriters, computers, cash registers, printing presses, or assembly lines. This placement is often associated with health problems that affect sinus conditions, migraine headaches, feverish complaints, sudden pains, infections, and possible surgery.

Mars Trine Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Apr 3, 2008

A lively streak of energy and self-confidence should enhance new ventures and assist in any direction you choose to take. This trend initiates leadership ability and inspires teamwork and cooperation in bringing matters to a successful conclusion. There is the possibility of new romantic attachments, marriage, or birth of children. Your physical stamina can assist in a speedy recovery and provide good recuperative powers in the event of any illness.

Mars Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 17, 2008

There is likely to be a noticeable increase of energy flow and activity into your life during the next three months. This is a good time to accept new and challenging ventures that you would not have considered in the past. Take advantage of your good health and increased vitality. Make positive changes in your personal affairs. You can advance through the application of your own merits and efforts during this trend.

Capricorn on the Seventh Cusp

At this point in life, you may conduct a working relationship with your marriage partner -- perhaps a business operating from the home base. It should be to your benefit to attend social functions connected with political parties or your vocation. They can provide excellent contacts for future advancements and opportunities. Authoritative figures and individuals of prestige will touch upon your life during this trend.

Aquarius on the Eighth Cusp

Sexual responses in the past may have been too reserved or not up to par. As a result, you may be drawn to the unconventional in sexual attractions. You may suddenly get sexual overtures from individuals whom you have always considered as friends. Or, the object of your affections may be married. Use your keen sense of judgment in these affairs. They may be exciting at the time but later, you may regret your actions. It is possible during this trend to become financially involved in a joint project with a friend. Always keep a good reserve in the savings account for unexpected expenditures.

Pisces on the Ninth Cusp

Concentrate on driving and proper reading of the map, if traveling by car. Confusion and fog can create hazardous conditions. Be selective of what you eat and drink in various cities or countries. You may be sensitive to the chemicals in the water or spices in the food. Art, music, photography, psychology, chemistry, or investigative work would be good topics, if you are furthering your studies. Avoid legal entanglements during this trend, if possible. You'll find that matters are not as they appear on the surface -- either the situation is confused, the papers get lost, or there are deceptive influences at work.

Aries on the Tenth Cusp

A driving force is compelling you to go into something new and different where you will be permitted to make personal decisions on certain matters and where there is a sense of challenge to your vocational interests. Your new job or department is likely to be male dominated and mechanically inclined. During this trend, you may attempt to cut the "umbilical cord" as you find a parent becoming too domineering. Guard your actions carefully, for there is the possibility of damage to your public image or reputation.

Taurus on the Eleventh Cusp

Influential friends will touch upon your life and, perhaps, be a source of financial or material gain. You may be elected treasurer or social director of an organization. Invariably, money enters the scene, and you may be criticized for improper handling of funds or spending too much on music or entertainment. You may have a daughter- or son-in-law who is quite stubborn and unyielding.

Gemini on the Twelfth Cusp

Depending upon your emotional state, you will sometimes possess uncanny intuitive abilities while at other times you are totally off base. Caution is a must while driving, for you tend to daydream instead of concentrating on the road. You have many secretive thoughts and ideas which tend to make you overly suspicious of others. You may find yourself in a position of working behind the scenes with loads of paperwork, printing presses, books, or cassette tapes. This sign is associated with the mentally disturbed, who may touch upon your life during this trend.

Moon in Gemini

This is a busy period, with a restlessness that seeks a variety of interests. There may be opportunities to undertake new studies, sports, or hobbies that will engulf the mind or occupy the hands. Many changes are likely to occur. Some will be connected with short travels, messages, phone calls, correspondences, buying or selling, and signing of important documents. Relatives, neighbors, and those in your immediate environment may play an important role. Others will make inroads on your time and pull you in many different directions. Therefore, it will be necessary to determine your priorities by selecting the most important project and staying with it until completed, if you are to bring gainful opportunities to a successful conclusion. Areas for vulnerable health problems are the lungs, hands, arms, and shoulders. The mind should be kept occupied so one does not worry or fret unnecessarily over insignificant matters. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the influence this sign will have on mental application.

Moon in the Twelfth House

Prepare now for personal changes that will be taking place in a very short time. Work behind the scenes, quietly and diligently, gathering data and knowledge that will help you advance in both the business world and personal affairs. Avoid the tendency for clandestine relationships or dealings with individuals of questionable background. Confusing or complicated situations will require careful handling. You may be highly susceptible to your environmental conditions. Should you desire to escape the turmoil that surrounds you, seek positive means. Quiet hours of solitude and meditation can do wonders -- or lose yourself in a constructive hobby such as music lessons, cake decorating, painting, or model building. Avoid the temptation toward drug or alcohol abuse, and take only the medication prescribed by your physician. On occasion there will be hidden or unforeseen gains in return for favors rendered in the past. Your sympathetic nature may be aroused at this time, bringing you in touch with those who are afflicted or in need of compassion and understanding. This placement is associated with hospitals, institutions, and police activity. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for more insight into these hidden matters.

Moon Conjunction Uranus (Prg-Prg) Mar 31, 2008

Expect the unexpected; unusual circumstances and surprising experiences to occur in the months ahead. All kinds of advantages and disadvantages may produce sudden and unforeseen changes in personal and domestic affairs. Magnetic conditions may form sudden and sometimes unconventional attachments -- not the conventional relationship that one would normally expect. These sudden changes may introduce an entirely new condition or event that will have a noticeable influence upon your life. Your general disposition may be somewhat irritable or belligerent. Caution is advised against hasty or rash behavior.

Moon Quincunx Jupiter (Prg-Prg) May 27, 2008

The trends are fairly good during the next three months for financial, business, and social affairs. This is a period of time in which one should review present progress and concentrate on sowing the seeds for future growth and expansion. Consider the consequences of any new ventures or undertakings. Can you handle additional projects? Can you fit them into your busy schedule without undue stress on your health? A sensible diet and exercise program along with avoiding excesses, can do wonders for renewing your vitality.

Moon Conjunction Uranus (Prg-Nat) May 28, 2008

Expect the unexpected; unusual circumstances and surprising experiences to occur in the months ahead. Caution is advised against hasty or rash behavior.

Moon Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jun 18, 2008

Aching knees, colds, chills, teeth problems, or low vitality are likely to make the next three months rather depressing. Everything appears to be on hold, where nothing goes right. Finances or business may be a source for concern. This is not the time for making changes of a personal nature or seeking favors from those in authority.

Moon Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Nat) Jul 27, 2008

Aching knees, colds, chills, teeth problems, or low vitality are likely to make the next three months rather depressing. Everything appears to be on hold, where nothing goes right. Finances or business may be a source for concern. This is not the time for making changes of a personal nature or seeking favors from those in authority.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jul 27, 2008

There is an inclination to spend more than you can afford, with the possibility of overextending yourself financially through extravagance. Although your intentions were good, you may discover that you have promised more than you can actually deliver. Irritability may be present in your make-up. During this trend it may be best to avoid too much contact with close associations and family ties. Watch your health, and don't overindulge or overexercise.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Sun (Prg-Nat) Oct 14, 2008

Physical stamina, vitality, and your general state of health may not be up to par. During the next few months all relationships are best kept at arm's length to avoid possible disputes or confrontations. This is not the time to push ahead in business or personal endeavors. Obstacles and drawbacks are likely to hinder or impair potential opportunities.

Moon Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Prg) Nov 3, 2008

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Nat) Nov 26, 2008

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and overactivity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Semisquare Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Dec 13, 2008

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Quincunx Venus (Prg-Prg) Jan 4, 2009

This could be a fun time socially, but much depends upon the effort you put forth into motivating and influencing others. They are apt to rely too much on your personal energy and expertise in the planning of social gatherings. You may feel burdened with too many of the details so necessary for a successful function. Some adjustment or adaptation to new routines, or a relinquishment of a personal interest, may be necessary to maintain peace and harmony.

Moon Square Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Mar 15, 2009

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Nat) Apr 24, 2009

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Prg) May 2, 2009

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Prg) May 27, 2009

There is an inclination to spend more than you can afford, with the possibility of overextending yourself financially through extravagance. Although your intentions were good, you may discover that you have promised more than you can actually deliver. Irritability may be present in your make-up. During this trend it may be best to avoid too much contact with close associations and family ties. Watch your health, and don't overindulge or overexercise.

Moon Trine Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jul 23, 2009

One of the most opportune periods for financial, business, and social affairs. Use a positive and constructive approach with this trend, commencing all new undertakings that promise good fortune and opportunities. Do all you can to improve personal conditions. This can be a milestone in which goals and objectives take new and favorable directions. This is a good time to speculate, invest, and make beneficial contacts or ties. Consider new educational pursuits or make travel plans.

Moon Square Neptune (Prg-Nat) Aug 13, 2009

You may feel an urgency to temporarily escape from reality by seeking hidden places of isolation either physically or mentally. You may wish to escape from all the confusing elements that appear to be surrounding your environment at this time. You may have frightening or weird experiences with ghosts or possible contacts with past deceased individuals. Upsetting dreams or nightmares may cause sleepless nights. Be careful in dealings with others who, through some unusual influence, may try to deceive or drain you of your vitality and energy. Trying conditions or events can make this a sorrowful time, bringing you in touch with individuals who may be terribly ill and who may draw upon your impressionable and supersensitive sympathies.

Moon Trine Sun (Prg-Nat) Oct 10, 2009

This is a very successful period and can aid in the realization of your fondest hopes and ambitions. Apply personal efforts toward new opportunities in business advancements or embark on new enterprises. Make new friends and increase social contacts. Close ties and those in authority can be of beneficial help and assistance during the next few months. There is a possibility of renewed emotional and affectional feelings as you develop a close bond with a new relationship. There should be an increase in vitality, with a personal sense of well-being. This is one of the most auspicious periods for recuperation or overcoming past illnesses.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Nat) Nov 21, 2009

Impulsive decisions or hasty actions can lead to possible accidents or quarrels with loved ones. Abrupt statements made at this time are likely to be cause for regret later. Don't push for important changes or take unnecessary risks. Work out this excessive energy through repairing, painting, or completion of difficult tasks. Be aware that certain risks are involved. Use caution in new undertakings or ventures.

Moon Sextile Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Dec 8, 2009

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Trine Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 21, 2009

The next three months should bring beneficial changes in personal affairs, business matters, or general conditions affecting domestic situations. Pleasant experiences are likely through women, and you should have great rapport with the general public. An enjoyable period, in which matters tend to flow freely without restriction and hindrances. A favorable trend for purchase or sale of property, and enlarging or remodeling of your home.

Uranus in the Twelfth House

Unforeseen circumstances or situations may restrict you from forming close ties with friends or taking an active role in any club or organization. Perhaps it is your job or responsibility with young children that is turning you into a loner, creating a sort of isolated condition. For those who are active with associations, you may feel as though your hard work and volunteer efforts are going unnoticed and unappreciated. After a while, you may lessen your activities and take a passive role. From time to time, you may receive unexpected good fortune from forgotten or hidden issues, or unexpected gifts from friends who want to repay you for past favors. Treat some of your friends with "kid gloves," for they may turn into secret enemies. This placement is associated with sudden and unexpected trips to the hospital with a member of the family.
